

The Grove School of Engineering

Student Research & Scholarship Center
and

Students in Media

Invite you to participate in

The First Annual
Art of Science & Engineering Contest and Exhibition

In preparation for the NSF Visualization Challenge

http://www.nsf.gov/news/special_reports/scivis

Call for Entry

Submit original Photographs, Illustrations, Videos, Animation, and Interactive Programs related in any way to STEM (science, tech, engineering, math).

All parts of the entry must be the original work of the entrant.

Deadline: May 19, 2008

1 First Place - $250 / 2 Second Place - $100 / 3 Third Place - $50

All exhibiting artists will be honored at the Awards Luncheon on May 22.

Exhibition on view at the Cohen Library Archives (5th floor) May 22 – July 31.

Opening reception: May 22, 11:30am-2:30pm; Cohen Library Archives Room

Award Luncheon: May 22, 12:30pm-2:00pm; Faculty Dining Room

Each entry must be accompanied with the "Entry Form" including the following information:

Entrant Info: Name, Major/Department, cell phone, email.

Scientific Narrative of Artwork: How does your entry conform to the theme of STEM?

Digital files should be submitted by email or yousendit.com to gsoejsr@gmail.com.

CDs and/or physical art pieces can be submitted to NAC 1/119 with an appointment.

For the Entry Form, submission appointment, and more information, please contact
Annie Deng: The President of the Student in Media

<http://StudentsInMedia.110mb.com>, email StudentsInMedia@Gmail.com, or Yuying Gosser: The Director of the Student Research and Scholarship, GSOE

<http://www.sci.ccny.cuny.edu/~ygosser/PATHWAYS/Announcements.html>

email yygosser@gmail.com, Phone: 212-650-8870